CANYON RANCH
LIVING[®]
MIAMI BEACH

A wide-angle photograph of a modern balcony with a glass railing. The balcony is situated on a high floor of a building, overlooking a vast expanse of blue ocean under a clear sky with scattered white clouds. To the left, another part of the building is visible, showing multiple levels with balconies. The balcony floor is light-colored, and the railing is made of clear glass panels held by white metal frames. The overall scene is bright and airy, emphasizing the view and the architectural design.

Own a spectacular residence in an environment created by the pioneers of spa and wellness, Canyon Ranch. Perfectly situated on 750 linear feet of pristine beach, between the high life of Bal Harbour and the nightlife of South Beach, this is truly the best life – your very own personal resort with an array of exceptional restorative amenities focused specifically on you.

This is Canyon Ranch Living –
Miami Beach.

RESIDENCES

Primary home or pied-à-terre?

Inspiration for healthy living.

Canyon Ranch – your way.

Choose from spacious one to three bedroom condominiums and penthouses, most with oversized terraces, all with spectacular floor-to-ceiling windows and breathtaking views.
